PRESIDENT'S CORNER

Last Meeting of 2009-2010 Year

Our June 8th annual meeting, with dinner at the Mansour Center, will conclude our 2009-2010 AAUW Cobb Chapter year. We have had a good one, with great programs planned by Pam Flournoy; excellent attendance at those informative meetings by all of you; a very well-planned and well-executed STEM program spearheaded by Nancy Coakley; assistance in a successful CTAUN conference, where we were represented by Marie Shockley; a successful reception here at the Mansour Center for our new AAUW National President Carolyn Garfein; a well-attended AAUW State Convention in conjunction with our sister branches here in Atlanta; and herculean efforts all year in the bookroom by people like Karen Peters, as well as all of us at Bookfair.

Our scholarship committee, headed by Linda Stewart worked tirelessly to select worthy recipients for our scholarship funds. Carol Stephens helped organize the Legislative Forum with the League of Women Voters, and Peg Montgomery shepherded us to lovely local restaurants through Roving Gourmet, while Denise Bossarte kept our book groups up-to-date. Barbara Hammond guided some faculty and students at KSU to form an AAUW chapter at the university, Judy Ribarsky has worked diligently on this newsletter all year, Joanne Gareau was very instrumental in getting our autism forum off the ground, Debbie Shonka has faithfully sent out everything I asked her to, and Sylvia Goodyear and Debbie Karvey continue to represent our branch ably on the Steering Committee for Bookfair.

What else? Members have dusted their homes and prepared snacks for book group meetings, sampled local gourmet fare at Roving Gourmet gatherings, and attended our meetings.

Without that participation, none of the rest is worthwhile.

It has been my privilege to serve you this past year as your president. You have all been so generous with your time and energy, and I am sincerely grateful for everyone's help.

Shirley

OUTSTANDING WOMEN, AAUW COBB BRANCH

Have you noticed how outstanding members of our branch are lately? There's Arden Stone in the Peace Corps in Ukraine, and we have Beth Farokhi running for Georgia Superintendent of Education, Debbie Karvey and Marcia Capriotti installed as AAUW Georgia co-presidents, and now we have Marie Shockley heading off to Zambia to build houses for Habitat for Humanity.

Must be something in the water, right? We are proud of all of you.

Don't forget our need for workers in the Book Room!!

Working hours in the Book Room are Tuesday, Thursday & Saturday 10 am to 2 pm
For more info call the Bookroom at 404-261-7646
Address: 3060 Pharr Court North, Atlanta, GA 30305

Please everyone save all your empty toilet and towel rolls which are used for boxing the books. If you can't get them to the book room or to a meeting, call Karen or Shirley or Judy or Denise or and "we" will see that they are picked up, delivered or whatever needs to be done!!!

Karen reported that she shipped out a book that fetched a price of $500 plus!!!

A "few" more of those and we'll be able to scholarship even more women!!

Dear friends and family, I'm on the road again, traveling to Katete, Zambia in August to work as a volunteer with Habitat for Humanity's Global Village program!! I'll be working with other volunteers building houses alongside people who need a decent, affordable place to live, helping to build simple, affordable homes. . I'm currently raising money to support my teams work, and I'd be grateful if you would consider making an online donation. Read on to learn more about my trip, Habitat's work and how you can help. (Thank you so much!). Please visit my Habitat Web page, where you can learn about my 1st international trip. I have helped to build five homes here in Georgia, and two in Maui!. My Habitat ID# is 1514-8145. <http://www.habitat.org/cd/gv/participant/> Thank you for helping me build houses and hope within our world!!!!!
